New stormwater planning regulations is the subject of talk for breakfast briefing of Chester County Economic Development Council

Event takes place on Friday, March 30, 2007

EXTON _ The Chester County Economic Development Council is hosting a breakfast briefing on the new Pennsylvania stormwater regulations on Friday, March 30, 2007.

A panel of experts will present an overview of the new Pennsylvania Stormwater Best Management Practices (BMP) program and its wide-ranging effects on all aspects of land development. This overview will demonstrate the impacts on design, economic factors, and legal issues. Developers, architects, and construction professionals should attend to ensure they are in compliance with these new regulations.

The panel will include Dan Salameda of Advanced GeoServices, Tim Cassidy of Bernardon Haber Holloway, Paul White of- Brickhouse Environmental and Lou Colagreco of Riley Riper Hollin & Colagreco.

Breakfast and registration begins at 7:45 a.m. with the program concluding at 9:30 a.m. The event takes place at the Economic Development Council at 737 Constitution Drive, Exton. Shire Pharmaceuticals is sponsoring the breakfast.

The cost is $15 for members of the Chester County Economic Development Council and $25 for non-members. To register, please contact Kathleen Nader at 610-458-5700 ext. 210 or knader@cceconomicdevelopment.com.
