

Kennett Square Economic Development Services Center holds workshop on starting a business in Spanish

KENNETT SQUARE _ A workshop on “Starting your Own Successful Business” will be held in Spanish at the Kennett Square Economic Development Services Center.

The workshop will be held on October 4 from 6:00 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. at the center at 101 East State Street. This workshop will be taught in Spanish. To register, please contact Courtney O’Donnell at codonnell@cceconomicdevelopment.com.

The workshop is for those thinking about starting a company. The subjects will include: organization, management, location, marketing, cash flow, and sources of funding. The workshop allows you to practice networking with other entrepreneurs. Existing business owners can use this workshop as a “checkup” on their operations.

This workshop is presented by Kutztown University SBDC in partnership with the Chester County Economic Development Council and the Kennett Square Economic Development Services Center.

The Economic Development Council is a private, non-profit economic development organization that has been nurturing economic growth in Chester County and the surrounding region for more than 40 years. The Council’s portfolio of business growth services includes: low-interest financing, small business lending, workforce training, retention and expansion, customized international business assistance, land and building site selection, brownfields consultation and remediation, urban redevelopment, and agricultural economic development. The Council also offers state-of-the art conference and training facilities at its facility in Eagleview.
