KENNETT SQUARE'S RESOURCE FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

MISSION

The mission of the Kennett Square Economic Development Services Center (EDSC) is to encourage and promote smart economic growth and prosperity of Kennett Square and the surrounding areas of southern Chester County. This will be accomplished by providing local access to business and economic development services through the collaboration of partner agencies.

OBJECTIVES

- Provide southern Chester County-based businesses local access to business and economic development services.
- Increase the number of viable businesses in the downtown area.
- Sustain and grow existing and emerging small businesses through training, mentoring, and consultation.
- Significantly increase the access of Kennett Square businesses to affordable capital.

SERVICES

A full range of economic development services including assistance with:

- small business loans and support
- entrepreneurial training, mentoring and consultation
- workforce development, expansion and/or retention
- international business assistance
- environmental assistance/Brownfields redevelopment and consultation
- agricultural economic development
- advancing technological improvements
- site relocation and/or site selection
- legal and insurance referrals

Non-English speaking clients can work with La Comunidad Hispana to access all services provided through the EDSC.
